The Signs of Your Success are Showing Make Sure You're Adequately Covered

You purchased new equipment for the shop. You upgraded the gear for your mechanics. You're taking in more vehicles for repair. There's more vehicles on your lot for sale. You added a new truck to your fleet.

Has your coverage kept pace with the improvements?

When the value of your business goes up, it's critical to ensure you won't be let down by an undervalued policy. If the information we have doesn't match your current improvements, you won't have adequate coverage for the new value if you experience a loss.

Contact IGO for a policy review

Yes, you may need to increase your coverage to ensure you're adequately covered for the new, higher value. It's an important discussion to have with us. Contact your IGO Insurance Account Manager today and make sure you're successfully covered.
